

Topic 1.2: What is Community-Engaged Research?

Main Ideas

-
- Community-engaged research is when people who work at universities and people from the community do research together.

-
- Community research partners who do research have an important role.
 - Community members share their experiences and knowledge to make sure the research is helpful to people, accessible, and respectful.
-