

Discussion Questions

1. When you think about research, what pictures or words do you think about? What feelings do you have?

2. How do you think other people with developmental disabilities might feel about research?

Discussion Questions

3. How do you think different experiences with research studies in the past might make people feel about being in research studies now?